LABOR CELEBRATION

Workingmen's Day Was Appropriately Observed.

ECLIPSED FORMER EVENTS

In Many Cities of the South and Elsewhere Hosts of Labor Turn Out En Masse—Men in Long Line Everywhere Given Continuous Ovation.

Atlanta, Sept. 4.—Bewteen solid banks of humanity, which formed on Peachtree and Whitehall, from Mitchell to Ivy streets, Monday morning there flowed a stream of organized labor, whose number was variously estimated from 2,500 to 4,000.

Certain it is, however, no matter its numerical strength, it was the most representative and largest demonstration of organized labor in the history of the Atlanta Federation of Trades.

Fully 15,000 men, women and children, lining the sidewalk from store to curb, packing the street from curb to car track, reviewed the passing hosts, and applauded, liberally, the many artistic and appropriate devices and floats and banners.

There was a continuous ovation accorded these privates in the great army of industry, from the educational float at the head of the parade to the fantastic Indians, who brought the line of march, over a mile long, to a glorious finish.

Each crashing band of music; each recent acquisition to the ranks of unionism; each new and special union float and each familiar face among the sturdy leaders of unionism was greeted with prolonged applause.

It was one of the most artistic and best managed parades ever seen in the south, and certainly the greatest triumph organized labor has ever had in Atlanta.

There were mor eorganizations in the parade; more men in the organizations; more originality in the costumes, and more taste in the floats than has ever been noted before.

In the City of New York.

New York, Sept. 4.—More than five million men and women, members of labor organizations, spent Monday in celebrating the one day in the year set apart in most of the states and territories in the union as a tribute to those who earn their daily bread.

From all parts of the country comes the information that laboring men and women have fared well in the last twelve months and that the day was celebrated with enthusiasm. There have been fewer labor controversies than usual, only four serious strikes having been recorded during the year. Such other disputes as have arisen between capital and labor have been settled by arbitration.

In the City of Macon.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 4.—Macon people witnessed an unusually brilliant celebration of Labor day, the floats and the parade proving the best ever undertaken by the different unions belonging to the federation here. This was the first procession of the kind ever seen in the Central City and has proven a decided success. All member of unions and the officials of the federation were highly pleased with the success of the day.

In Savannah, Ga.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 4—Labor day observance was the greatest ever held in Savannah. There were 1,000 laboring men in the great parade. Sports on the beach at Tybee Island closed the celebration.

Columbus Celebrates.

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 4.—Labor da was generally observed as a holiday in Columbus, all the industrial plants closing and many thousands of operatives enjoying a day's rest and recreation. There was no set program of exercises, but a good many amusements had been provided, and Wildwood park proved the center of attraction for the pleasure seekers. A haymakers' parade through the streets was a feature of the da

IMPORTANT PROCEEDING.

Suit Brought by Government Against Standard Oil Company.

New York, Sept. 4.—An important legal proceeding is to be called in the federal court.

The case is the suit brought by the government against the Standard Oil company by which the government seeks to dissolve the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, and enjoin it from receiving rebates and discriminating rates. The defendants are John D. Rockefeller, John D. Archbold, H. H. Rogers, C. M. Pratt and seventy corporations, of which the New Jersey corporation is the holding company, including the Standard Oil company of Indiana, which was recently fined more than $29,000,000 by Judge Landis.

Judge Franklin Ferriss, appointed by the United States circuit court of St. Louis, will sit as master to hear the testimony that is to be taken in this city. Who the witnesses are is not divulged.

The Standard Oil company will be represented by a distinguished array of counsel.

It was reported Tuesday that they would apply for a postponement on the plea that they had not had sufficient time to prepare their case, but the government officials have indicated that they would flight against an adjournment.

The proceedings will involve the very life of the Standard Oil company, so that a battle royal is expected that they woul fight against an

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE FELT.

Trembler's Shocks Are Recorded but Where Was the Disturbance?

London, Sept. 3.—Professor Milne, the celebrated seismologist, telegraphs from the Isle of Wight observatory that at 4:14 o'clock Monday afternoon the motion of a great earthquake which did not reach its maximum until 5:05 p. m. (Greenwich time) began to be recorded there.

The amplitude of motion was five millimeters, which means that the disturbance was the greatest recorded at the observatory in 1907 since the Mexican earthquake on April 17.

At the time the professor telegraphed (8:15 p. m.) the duration of the earthquake was already greater than three hours, and the shocks were still continuing. The distance of the origin of the quake is about 7,000 miles from England.

There are two great seismic regions in that district, one in Chile to the west and the Souda islands, in the Malay archipelago and the Philippine islands to the east. If the quake occurred on land, great damage must have been done.

SEVEN PERSONS HURT.

Automobile, Carriage and Wagon in General Mixup.

New York, Sept. 4.—Seven persons were injured in an automobile accident near Mineola late Monday night. W. D. Lynch, the owner of the machine, was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nelms, of Troy, N. Y., and Frederick Laport.

The machine was about to pass a wagon when a carriage containing two men and a boy turned directly across the road in front of the automobile. The buggy was smashed and the automobile badly damaged.

Lynch is suffering from a broken leg and possibly internal injuries. He had both ankles broken and is badly bruised. Mrs. Nelms sustained a severe scalp wound and is badly bruised. Laport was injured by the flying glass and may die.

The two men in the buggy were slightly injured and the boy was unhurt.

Stabbed in the Back.

Youngstown, Ohio, Sept. 4.—John Rhodes, a popular youth, was stabbed in the back Monday night. With a companion he was passing several men who were quarreling in the street when he was attacked. He will die. Several suspects were arrested.

A Fatal Misstep.

Steubenville, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Vincent Andrea, aged 28, a track walker, stepped out of the road of a Panhandle freight and was struck and killed by a passenger train.

RIOTING IN 'FRISCO

Labor Day Marred by Trouble In the California City.

TROLLEY MEN ARE ATTACKED

During the Demonstration of the Labor Organizations Motormen Broke Line of Parade and Trouble Was Precipitated.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—A clash between non-union street car employees and a crowd returning from witnessing the Labor day procession Monday, resulted in a riot in which at least a half dozen people were injured, one probably fatally.

The parade of the labor unions had just been dismissed, and a large crowd was waiting to go to Shell Mound, where exercises have been part of the day's program for some years.

When, under the direction of an inspector a car was started, running into the mass of people and injuring several, it infuriated the crowd, which attacked the inspector, whereupon Conductor James Walking and Motorman F. J. Durson drew their revolvers and fired.

This further angered the crowd, and within a few minutes a fight on all the carmen who had been tied up by the parade crowds, was precipitated. It was some time before both the police and fire departments could restore order.

Riot at Louisville, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 4.—A woman was responsible for a riot here Monday following Labor day parade. She refused to ride on a car operated by nonunion men, and called on several men who had participated in the parade to remove the motorman and conductor from the car. Her words inflamed the crowd immediately, as the street car men have already voted to go on strike and will probably walk out Thursday night, and in a thrice four cars were attacked and practically demolished, four of the nonunionists being seriously injured.

RICHARD MANSFIELD IN GRAVE.

Funeral Services Over the Acter Were Very Simple.

New London, Conn., Sept. 4.—All that was mortal of Richard Mansfield was carried to the grave in the Gardner cemetery, within a few rods of his summer home Monday. The ceremony was simple but impressive, and was attended by many of the friends and relatives of the late actor. The services at the house were simple. After this ceremony, those present formed in a procession and proceeded to the plot selected for the burial almost directly across the street, where brief services were also held.

Train is Derailed.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 4.—The Chesapeake and Ohio local passenger train No. 6 was derailed near Kanawha Falls, 31 miles from Charleston, and as a result seven are dead and 17 injured. One coach and the combination express and baggage car left the tracks and overturned, rolling aowards the Kanawha river. Among the dead are Allen Loving, a law student at West Virginia university, serving as express agent during the summer; G. S. Campbell, a telegraph operator, and a fireman, name unknown. Spread of the rails is supposed to have caused the accident.

Will Build Flour Mill.

Huntsville, Ala., Sept. 4.—F. M. Hopkins & Co., Shelbyville, Tenn., capitalists, have secured a site in this city and will establish a large flouring mill here. The industry will represent an investment of about $25,000, and its daily output will be 300 barrels of flour. This is the first industry to be located through the efforts of the Huntsville Business Men's League.

PRISONER KILLS OFFICER.

One Burglar Shoots Policeman and Another Suicides.

Luxhurst, N. J., Sept. 4.—Geo. Cassidy, a policeman, was shot and killed early Monday morning while endeavoring to arrest two burglars who had been caught in the act of robbing a store.

The burglars were pursued by a crowd and rather than submit to capture one of them killed himself in a swamp. The other burglar escaped.

Cassidy had arrested the men and started with his prisoners for the station house, when one of them drew a pistol from his pocket and pressing it against Cassidy's coat pulled the trigger. Cassidy fell dead and the two men ran away.

The shooting aroused the neighborhood and a crowd gave chase.

The burglars separated, one of there making for the Passaic river. When the crowd pressed too close the burglar turned and fired a fusilade of shots, but no one was hurt.

The burglar then ran into a swamp seeking a place where he could swim the river, but the mud and slime dragged him down and he became exhausted in his efforts to escape.

Realizing that he would be captured, he used the last cartridge in his revolver to shoot himself. He was dead when his pursuers reached him.

FIENDISH ACT.

Turpentine Poured Over Victim After Being Beaten.

Washington, Pa., Sept. 4.—Police, constables and citizens are searching for three Italians who are accused of the most brutal outrage ever perpetrated in this county. Their victim is dying in the local hospital and violence is threatened if his torturers are captured.

James Connelly, a miner at Avella, was attacked by the trio, thrown to the ground, bound, gagged and beaten, after which turpentine was poured over his body and into his eyes and nose. He was then carried to the outskirts of the village and turned loose in the woods.

Connelly roamed about all night in the woods suffering agony beyond description. Exhausted, he finally fell in his tracks and was found by miners attracted by his frantic morning.

Physicians at the hospital declare that Connelly will probably die, but that if he lives he will be blind in both eyes will probably lose the use of his nose and will be disfigured for life.

Accusations have been made against the fiends responsible for the brutal torture, but they have disappeared.

The exact cause of the assault is a mystery that Connelly has not been able to explain.

DUEL IN A CLUB ROOM.

Members of the Elk Club Use Knives Upon One Another.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 4.—I. B. English, Jr., member of a prominent family, and Morgan Yates, a traveling salesman for the Dunlop Hardware company, were each sliced severely in a knife duel at the Elks' club rooms in the Grand building Monday as the result of a row arising out of some old feeling.

English was the victim of two ugly gashes and is at the city hospital. Both are members of the Elks' club.

Tragic Death of Boys.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Two Polish lads, Tony Carola and Guiseppi Zoppa, both about 13 years old, were shocked to death Sunday on a steel tower which carries high voltage currents from Niagara falls powere plants to the Lackawana Steel plant. For nearly three hours the bodies hung in midair with the blue flames playing about them in view of thousands of street car passengers.

TRAGEDY IN MACON.

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 4.—[illegible] in Wildwood park here Monday [illegible] Wood C. Campbell, former city marshal of Phenix City, shot [illegible] instantly killed L. T. Edwards, [illegible] Columbus furniture house.

The shooting took place in the presence of hundreds of people thronged the park in celebration Labor day. A panic followed.

A stray bullet struck John T. Hams, a young mill clerk for the newspaper. The bullet entered left side, encircled the body, narrowly missing the spinal column, coming nearly to the surface on the right side. It is believed the bullet which struck Williams first went through Edwards' body.

Campbell was put under arrest. It states Edwards was trying to force his home and continued to molest standing that he pleaded with Edwards vances to Mrs. Campbell, misunderstanding that he pleaded with Edwards cease his attentions. He further stated he had sold his property, had decided to go west, taking wife and children. He was tried for murder a few years ago in Lee county court, Alabama, and acquitted.

Campbell says his visit to the city was purely casual, and that he had no idea of meeting Edwards there.

Edwards was about 28 years of age and had a family. He had been Sunday school superintendent and deacon in a West Side church. Both had a pistol on his person when shot and another was found on the ground near his side.

In the mayor's court K. W. Pelton, the white man who was arrested at the passenger station of the Atlantic Coast Line Monday as he left the train and began to annoy people in the office of the Alachua County Abstract Company, was fined $5 and costs upon a charge of disorderly conduct.

Pelton only had $12.50 in his pocket. hence the charge of carrying concealed weapons was not brought against him. He was arrested, however, after paying his fine in the city on a warrant sworn out in the name of the county, was taken before Justice Osburn, and fined $100 and costs or three months in the county "gang." Not having the funds to pay his fine, he will consequently have to spend his time in learning how to "bust" timber or mine phosphate.

Pelton is a white man. It will be remembered that he got on the train at Ocala Monday, according to the statement of the train crew, and was well under the influence of liquor when arrested here by Marshal Arnow, who found a pistol in his bosom.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

The genial countenance of Deputy County Judge George Mason is missed at the court house, Mr. Mason being confined to his home with fever. Friends hope for his early recovery.

Mrs. M. E. Miller of Kanapaha was in the city yesterday. Mrs. Miller would have had a large crop of pears had not some miscreant and thief gone into the orchard and made away with the fruit. She has one of the best pear orchards in this section.

Conductor G. L. Bouseman of the Atlantic Coast Line, who makes his headquarters at High Springs, was shaking hands with his old friends in Gainesville yesterday. Gus, as he is familiarly known, was for a long time night police officer here, and is well known. His friends are always glad to see him.

Maurice Arnow, formerly of this city but now holding a responsible position as railway postal clerk between Jacksonville and Tampa, was in the city for a short time yesterday. Mr. Arnow was en route to Micanopy, where his wife is now visiting. He expects to remain there for the next few days, as he is on his annual vacation.

Chas. Pinkoson has returned from Camp Perry, Ohio, where he has been as a member of the Florida Rifle Team in the National shoot. Mr. Pinkoson has been in "hard luck" ever since his arrival at Camp Perry, having sustained injury to one of his arms. As a result he did no shooting whatever. He left Captain J. W. Blanding at Put-in-Bay, Ohio, and states that Captain Blanding will return in about a week.

HAD A HARD EXPERIENCE.

Trio of Gainesville Boys Met With Hard Luck at Cedar Key.

Assistant Postmaster J. P. H. Bell, Hugh Morrow and Mr. Krause have returned to their homes in this city, after a brief visit to Cedar Key, in which they had a most novel experience which brought about the occasion of hard work.

These three sprightly representatives of the University City went down for a fishing trip. Accordingly, early in the morning after their arrival they secured a launch and started out, their destination being about four miles across the bay. After arriving at the destination, when they were ready to proceed in the matter of pulling up immense members of the finny tribe, they discovered when they went to bait their hooks that they had left the bait behind. They were unable to start the engine, hence it became necessary for them to secure a row-boat from some person on shore, and a couple of the party rowed back to the starting point. The bait was secured after hard rowing, but imagine the chagrin of the party when they discovered at noon time that they had also left their lunch. They were compelled to fast for dinner, and as the shades of evening fell and they did not return, still being unable to start up the engine, a boat belonging to W. R. Hodges came along and relieved the situation by showing the "engineer" of the party how to start the engine.

The party reports a pleasant time, notwithstanding the disadvantages with which they had to contend.

The affair was a quiet one, only the immediate family of the bride and a few intimate friends being present.

The groom is not well known here, but is said to be a young man of exceptional qualities. The bride was born and reared in the vicinity of Waldo, and is a young lady marked for her refinement and good disposition.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy New Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that eats the hair at the roots, and cleans the scalp of dandruff, and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mermett, in the Merchants Union, Boston, Mass., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had restored the growth, and now his hair is full and luxuriant. Herpicide did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 4.—As lately predicted in this correspondence, Secretary Cortelyou has opened the United States Treasury vaults to the National banks and although the evident intent is to help the Wall Street financiers by easing up the money market with the surplus Government millions, the time when these loans are to be made is to be shrouded in mystery. Only the insiders will have the tip when easier money may be expected, and those favorites of the Republican machine will, of course, be able to tell in advance the expected rise in the price of stocks. Will these favored Wall Street financiers return the favor by being liberal contributors to the next Republican campaign fund, or is this part of the pay for contributions to the Roosevelt campaign of 1904?

"If we don't elect the next President it will be our own fault," was the opinion expressed to me a day or two ago by a very prominent Democrat from a central State who has been enjoying in a moderate way the distraction of Saratoga for a few weeks. "What makes you think so?" I asked him. "Why, look at the disorganized condition of the Republican party. There were hundreds of leading Republicans at Saratoga, and nearly all of them were disheartened at the outlook. They don't know where they stand politically, for the Republican creed according to Taft disagrees with the epistle of Foraker, and the United States are all torn up with party strife. Not only in Ohio is there a party fight, but in New York the Hughes, Woodruff and Odell factions are fighting; in New Jersey the Kelly reformers are trying to down the Republican machine; in Pennsylvania the rival factions will turn the State over to the Democrats if they don't use better judgment than they have been displaying, and President Roosevelt has a finger in all these pies, besides any amount of trouble in other States.

"If we only could nominate some one who would unite our party," continued this Democrat, "we would win, whoever the Republicans nominate, but I fear that Mr. Bryan is a handicap we cannot struggle under. If I thought he could carry New York, New Jersey and run as well in Massachusetts as any other Democrat, I would look no further for a candidate, but those Democrats I have talked with from those States pretty much all agree that Mr. Bryan would not poll the Democratic vote, so I am forced to look elsewhere for a winning ticket." "Who have you in mind?" I asked him. "It is too early to affirm on a decision—much may happen politically, especially when Congress meets, that may change conditions, but we must remember it is still nine months before the party conventions will meet." I could only assure him that I had every confidence that the united wisdom of the Democratic leaders would select the most available candidate when that duty devolved upon them.

It is the general opinion here that there will be another reorganization of the cabinet. That Secretary Bonaparte will be one of the lambs to be slaughtered to appease the wrath of the steel trust and railroad magnates; that Secretary Taft will resign about next March, and that Secretary Metcalf will be got rid of as soon as possible. There is no doubt that Secretary Root would have withdrawn from the cabinet long ago, but the trust and railroad interests induced him to stay, as they wanted his aid on occasions when it was found necessary to bring pressure on the President and prevent him "running amuck" on some new usurpation which even Republican reformers such as Congressman McCall denounces as "immature judgment, a mere glutton of the limelight, ready to barter away prosperity and even his country's freedom for momentary applause."

ROBERT MILLER.

A WORLD OF WEALTHY WOMEN.

The new club-house of the Colony Club of New York, an imposing Colonial structure, costing all told a half million dollars, and architecturally like unto a delightful old New England tavern, is altogether unprecedented in the club-woman's world on this side of the Atlantic.

A temptingly equipped cuisine of offered to satisfy the cosmopolitan tastes of a membership of nearly one thousand women, who willingly part with the unmatched fees of one hundred and fifty dollars for initiation and one hundred dollars annual dues—to say nothing of gilt-edged prices for every service after one officially arrives, so to speak. The scene at the door is perpetually animated. From early morn until midnight crested automobiles turn in at the curb, and the courtly attendant in Colonial livery of blue and buff ushers a constant stream of arrivals into this delightful retreat, says The September Delineator. Sitting in the small reception-room at the side, one gets a series of kaleidoscopic impressions of the life of this original club. Probably Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, saunters in for a plunge into the white marble pool, or Mrs. John Jacob Astor for an athletic turn or two in the gymnasium, or Mrs. Clarence Mackay for a short rest in the reading room, or Miss Jeannette Gilder accompanies Miss Maude Adams for a comforting cup of tea after their professional duties.

"The town of Faleide, Norway, imposes no taxes on its lucky inhabitants," says The London (Eng.) Bystander. "During the last thirty years the authorities at Faleide have sold over $5,000,000 worth of trees; and, by judicious replanting, have provided for a similar income every thirty years. In consequence of this source of commercial wealth there are no taxes in Faleide, and local railways and telephones are free, as well as education and drinks—upon the King's birthday!"

From his Oklahoma speech it would look as though Secretary Taft and Senator Foraker were getting perilously near together on the Brownsville episode.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonals.

TERRIBLE STORY OF DEATH CITY

Refined, Gentle Women Ended Own Lives In Mental Agony.

TRUE STORY NOT YET WRITTEN

Harrowing Experiences of Those Who Tried to Reach Klondyke in the First Rush to the Gold Fields—Deserted Town in Canadian Barrens.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun

Seattle, Sept. 4.—The intense interest created in everything pertaining to Alaska and Yukon by the advent of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, which will be held at Seattle in 1909, has caused old pioneers of the Northland to recall many stories and incidents of the stirring days of the rush of the gold seekers.

No tragedy of ancient or modern times, no dream of Ammegeddon could be more horrible than the story of Death City and the brave band that built it as the terrible winter of 1897-98 was falling. It is a tale of a city that sprang up in a few hours, lasted a season and then was abandoned forever. The remains of this deserted city are situated near the camp headquarters of a tribe of Yukon Indians on the Mackenzie river, in somewhat the same lattitude as Dawson and Fairbanks.

Men and Women Rush for Fields.

When the news of the Klondyke discovery reached the outside world several hundred thousand men and several hundred women at once resolved to go to this land of gold. But at that time the best route to reach the country was a matter of fierce debate. The Nome, the Skaguay, the Dyea, the Wrangell, the Valdez, the Atlin, the Edmonton and the Prince Albert routes were fiercely championed by their respective supporters. And as a result thousands started in to the Yukon by what is now known as the terrible Prince Albert and Edmonton routes.

Thousands Died by Wayside.

The summer of 1897 saw thousands start into the unknown land. Many turned back, many died by the wayside, and the remainder, scurvy-ridden, dirty, hungry, hoarse with that laughter that is worse than tears or hysterics, struggled along till winter began to fall. Most of them followed the Mackenzie, and before they started it was understood that they would meet, for company's sake, to spend the winter at the highest point on the Mackenzie a traveller would touch, the point at which he turned westward to reach the Yukon. There party after party straggled in, frost bitten, starving and hopeless, and those who had arrived before and were somewhat rested built the cabins and tended them till their strength came slowly back.

Frozen and Hungry.

But the food was scarce. The cold had driven the game away. The lack of fresh vegetables made the scurvy worse as the winter deepened. Day after day the steady ring of the picks on the frozen ground told that one more grave was being dug for some unfortunate resident of Death City who had given up the struggle.

Spring Found Few Alive.

When spring came only a few white-haired, gaunt, old looking, stooped and twisted men were left. Food and supplies were long since gone, and the dogs had all been eaten. But the lure of the gold still beckoned, and on they staggered day by day, eating roots and occasionally managing to shoot some game or to snare a rabbit. They finally reached the gold land—only to find that the others who had gone by the Dyea and Skaguay routes had arrived months before and had staked all the good ground in the camp.

Some day some survivor of Death City will write the story of that terrible winter, and will tell the dark stories that are only now whispered; of men turning old in a single week; of women, refined and gentle, who died by their own hand rather than live marked by the terrible scurvy; of heroic sacrifices and of panic stricken cowards whose breaches of discipline were suddenly ended by the crack of a rifle. And in the meantime the deserted tents and decaying cabins and the heaped mounds which cover the losers in all that remain of an experience that few occasions in this world's history have equaled.

"The Blood is The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are effected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enriches and purifies the blood thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath.

BRIEF DISPATCHES.

Southampton, Eng., Sept. 4—Sir Thomas Lipton has arrived here on his yacht Erin. He left Belfast last Thursday for Dublin, and his non-arrival there gave rise to the rumor that he had sailed for the United States.

Havana, Sept. 4.—A strike of bricklayers is on here because of their demand for pay in American money. This may be the beginning of a general move for American money, which has been expected since the cigar makers' strike.

New York, Sept. 4.—The latest scheme of the race track gamblers is the use of wireless telegraphy in the transmission of information from the tracks to the pool rooms. The police Monday seized a complete outfit of the apparatus and arrested two men who were operating it. The close watch kept on telegraph and telephone systems resulted in this novel attempt of the gamblers to get news.

New York, Sept. 4.—The Red Star liner Kronland arrived in port with seven passengers who never paid their fare across the ocean. On the passage six children were born in the steerage and one in the cabin.

OCEAN LINES IN RATE WAR.

Cunard Line Will Cut Eastward Passenger Rates.

Liverpool, Sept. 4.—The Cunard line has issued an official statement to the effect that it will be forced to follow the example of its competitors, and reduce its eastward Atlantic rates.

This action had been expected, as otherwise, with all the lines coming from the continent accepting lower rates, much of the Liverpool traffic might have been diverted.

The situation is regarded as serious. The most interesting question is, will the Cunard line's competitors make further reductions. There is little doubt that while the rate cutting at present is confined to the American eastward traffic, eventually it will affect the Canadian trade. The American lines have been fostering Canadian traffic via New York and Boston, and it appears that the Canadian lines will be obliged to reduce their rates or else lose business to the American steamers.

EXPOLSION IN POWDER MILL.

One Man Killed and Another Fatally Injured.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 4.—A terrific explosion occurred today in the powder mill of the Austin Powder company, located a few miles south of the city, resulting in the death of one employe and the fatal injury of another.

Jacob Barat was almost instantly killed, while Frank Moroski was frightfully injured and will die from his wounds. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Had the explosion occurred a few hours later, many other workmen would doubtless have been killed and injured.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

... said to be considered that only ... and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

The first symptom of Contagious Blood Poison is usually a little sore or ulcer which does not always excite suspicion because of its insignificance; but as the poison becomes more firmly rooted in the blood, the mouth and throat ulcerate, copper-colored spots appear, a rash breaks out on the body, the hair begins to come out, glands in the neck and groins swell, and often ulcerating sores form on the limbs, hands or face. But this is not all; if the poison is allowed to remain it works down and attacks the bones, causing necrosis or decay, and makes a complete physical wreck of the sufferer. It will not do to tamper with a disease so powerful as Contagious Blood Poison, for every day the virus remains in the blood the trouble is progressing toward a more dangerous stage, and may in the end get beyond the reach of any treatment. There is but one certain, reliable cure for Contagious Blood Poison, and that is S. S. S., the greatest of all blood purifiers. This remedy attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the blood and forcing out every particle of the poison. It makes the blood pure and rich, strengthens the different parts of the body, tones up the system and cures this humiliating and destructive disorder permanently. The improvement commences as soon as the patient gets under the influence of S. S. S. and continues until every vestige of the poison is driven from the blood, and the sufferer completely restored to health. S. S. S. is not an experiment, it is a success and has cured thousands of cases of Contagious Blood Poison in every stage, and being entirely free from minerals, is a safe as well as certain treatment. If you are suffering with this debasing disease get the poison out of your blood with S. S. S. before it does further damage. Special home treatment book on the disease and medical advice sent free to all who write.

BLOOD SUBSTITUTE.

Why Saline Solution Is Sometimes Injected Into the Veins.

Occasionally in cases of serious wounds where there has been great loss of blood the published reports state that "saline solution" was injected into the veins to supply the deficiency. The average reader, however, has a very vague if any idea how a solution of salt takes the place of blood.

Not to go into a complete analysis of the blood, it is sufficient to note that of 1,000 parts, 790.15 is composed of water, albumen 65 parts, sodium and potassium salt, coloring matter (supplied by the red blood corpuscles) 133, leaving only some 12 parts to be composed of fibrin, fat, calcium and magnesium, etc. Where there is serious loss of blood a state of collapse sets in because the normal weight of blood being reduced, the heart's action is diminished, there being less resistance for that organ to overcome.

To counteract the tendency to shock and collapse it is necessary to stimulate the heart by restoring the normal weight; in other words, to get it to work by giving it something to work on. As the analysis shows, 790 parts of blood nearly 800 are composed of water and sodium, and therefore a plain saline solution makes a good substitute. The heart does not know the difference, and it goes to pumping away as usual as soon as this imitation blood gets in the veins. The saline solution serves to tide the patient over the danger point. As the food is converted into chyle, new blood is formed, the red corpuscles are supplied rapidly from the normal tissues, and the saline solution is thrown off through the secretions in the usual way.

Formerly transfusion of blood was the means employed, but this always objectionable method has been supplanted. The greatest objection to the transfusion of blood from one person to another was that to supply the necessary amount to restore the wounded patient it was inevitable that the volunteer should be almost as badly drained, so that the physician would have two patients on his hands where he had one. Besides, there was always the risk of transfusing disease to the patient with the other's blood. Dogs and sheep have been sacrificed to surgery for this purpose, but most people prefer to use blood of their own manufacture to any imported from beasts or their fellow creatures.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The first of the modern bank notes were made in China about the year 1000 A. D.

Blood in its natural state contains a surprising amount of pure air, amounting to nearly seven-eighths of its entire bulk.

The wasp's nest is constructed of a first class article of papier mache, made from the pulp of wood, with an animal glue specially prepared by the wasps for the purpose.

The honey of the snapdragon cannot be extracted by the common bee, which has not weight enough to pull down the lower jaw of this curious flower. Only the bumblebee has access to the interior.

The first trapdoor was made by a species of African spider which has its nest in the ground and closes the entrance by means of a trapdoor opening outwardly and covered with bits of earth and grass in order to escape observation.

Women's Love of Ugly Men.

The illustrious men in history who were distinguished as much for the fascination which they exercised over the fair sex as for their talents and ability were, as a rule, plain and insignificant in appearance. Julius Caesar was a very ill favored man, and yet when a mere stripling, before his fame in Rome, girls of his own age sighed for him and mature women longed for his love. Among the men of later times who were renowned in like manner were Sir Philip Sidney, plain almost to ugliness; Paul Searron, the comic poet, a cripple; Voltaire, unmistakably ugly, and Rousseau, whose manners were awkward as his face was plain, while John Wilkes, who had the power to subjugate any woman who spoke to him for even five minutes, was admitted by his own showing to be the ugliest man in England in his time.

Proof of His Innocence.

"Mister George Washington Shintopp, did you steal those chickens?" asked the judge pointedly.

"No, sah, jedge. Ah is too 'spectable fo' dat."

"But it is stated on good authority that a bundle of feathers was found in your back yard the day before Christmas."

"Dat 'simneration, jedge, does proves mah innocence, coz how could de fedders be found in mah back yard de day befo' Chris'mus when mah wife didn't pluck dose chickens until de day after Chris'mus?"—Circle.

A Queer Argument.

It is often urged that eloquence and affectation are inalienable, but I maintain that the peculiar pronunciation of certain words—if that constitutes affectation—is a pardonable fault, of which many eminent orators are themselves guilty. In vast cathedrals and large halls where the acoustic properties are of an unusual order it is clearly manifest that some pronunciations are preferable to others, for some words by the very composition of their syllables are not so far reaching in their sound as others, so that if a ruse is adopted to gain the desired effect surely it is detrimental to no one.—London Academy.

Putting In the Sting.

Clara—I understand that Mr. Featherley paid me a very pretty compliment today? Ethel—Yes. What was it? Clara—He said that among the most beautiful young ladies at the party was Miss Clara Smith. Ethel (with a cough)—Yes, I noticed you among them.—London Mail.

LABOR CELEBRATION

Workingmen's Day Was Appropriately Observed.

ECLIPSED FORMER EVENTS

In Many Cities of the South and Elsewhere Hosts of Labor Turn Out En Masse—Men in Long Line Everywhere Given Continuous Ovation.

Atlanta, Sept. 4.—Between solid banks of humanity, which formed on Peachtree and Whitehall, from Mitchell to Ivy streets, Monday morning there flowed a stream of organized labor, whose number was variously estimated from 2,500 to 4,000.

Certain it is, however, no matter its numerical strength, it was the most representative and largest demonstration of organized labor in the history of the Atlanta Federation of Trades.

Fully 15,000 men, women and children, lining the sidewalk from store to curb, packing the street from curb to car track, reviewed the passing hosts, and applauded, liberally, the many artistic and appropriate devices and floats and banners.

There was a continuous ovation accorded these privates in the great army of industry, from the educational float at the head of the parade to the fantastic Indians, who brought the line of march, over a mile long, to a glorious finish.

Each crashing band of music; each recent acquisition to the ranks of unionism; each new and spectacular float and each familiar face among the sturdy leaders of unionism was greeted with prolonged applause.

It was one of the most artistic and best managed parades ever seen in the south, and certainly the greatest triumph organized labor has ever had in Atlanta.

There were mor eorganizations in the parade; more men in the organizations; more originality in the costumes, and more taste in the floats than has ever been noted before.

In the City of New York.

New York, Sept. 4.—More than five million men and women, members of labor organizations, spent Monday in celebrating the one day in the year set apart in most of the states and territories in the union as a tribute to those who earn their daily bread.

From all parts of the country comes the information that laboring men and women have fared well in the last twelve months and that the day was celebrated with enthusiasm. There have been fewer labor controversies than usual, only four serious strikes having been recorded during the year. Such other disputes as have arisen between capital and labor have been settled by arbitration.

In the City of Macon.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 4.—Macon people witnessed an unusually brilliant celebration of Labor day, the floats and the parade proving the best ever undertaken by the different unions belonging to the federation here. This was the first procession of the kind ever seen in the Central City and has proven a decided success. All member of unions and the officials of the federation were highly pleased with the success of the day.

In Savannah, Ga.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 4—Labor day observance was the greatest ever held in Savannah. There were 1,000 laboring men in the great parade. Sports on the beach at Tybee island closed the celebration.

Columbus Celebrates.

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 4.—Labor da was generally observed as a holiday in Columbus, all the industrial plants closing and many thousands of operatives enjoying a day's rest and recreation. There was no set program of exercises, but a good many amusements had been provided, and Wildwood park proved the center of attraction for the pleasure seekers. A haymakers' parade through the streets was a feature of the day.

IMPORTANT PROCEEDING.

Suit Brought by Government Against Standard Oil Company.

New York, Sept. 4.—An important legal proceeding is to be called in the federal court.

The case is the suit brought by the government against the Standard Oil company by which the government seeks to dissolve the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, and enjoin it from receiving rebates and discriminating rates. The defendants are John D. Rockefeller, John D. Archbold, H. H. Rogers, C. M. Pratt and seventy corporations, of which the New Jersey corporation is the holding company, including the Standard Oil company of Indiana, which was recently fined more than $29,000,000 by Judge Landis.

Judge Franklin Ferriss, appointed by the United States circuit court of St. Louis, will sit as master to hear the testimony that is to be taken in this city. Who the witnesses are is not divulged.

The Standard Oil company will be represented by a distinguished array of counsel.

It was reported Tuesday that they would apply for a postponement on the plea that they had not had sufficient time to prepare their case, but the government officials have indicated that they would flight against an adjournment.

The proceedings will involve the very life of the Standard Oil company, so, that a battle royal is expected that they woul fight against an

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE FELT.

Trembler's Shocks Are Recorded but Where Was the Disturbance?

London, Sept. 3.—Professor Milne, the celebrated seismologist, telegraphs from the Isle of Wight observatory that at 4:14 o'clock Monday afternoon the motion of a great earthquake which did not reach its maximum until 5:05 p. m. (Greenwich time) began to be recorded there.

The amplitude of motion was five millimeters, which means that the disturbance was the greatest recorded at the observatory in 1907 since the Mexican earthquake on April 17.

At the time the professor telegraphed (8:15 p. m.) the duration of the earthquake was already greater than three hours, and the shocks were still continuing. The distance of the origin of the quake is about 7,000 miles from England.

There are two great seismic regions in that district, one in Chile to the west and the Souda islands, in the Malay archipelago and the Philippine islands to the east. If the quake occurred on land, great damage must have been done.

SEVEN PERSONS HURT.

Automobile, Carriage and Wagon in General Mixup.

New York, Sept. 4.—Seven persons were injured in an automobile accident near Mineola late Monday night. W. D. Lynch, the owner of the machine, was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nelms, of Troy, N. Y., and Frederick Laport.

The machine was about to pass a wagon when a carriage containing two men and a boy turned directly across the road in front of the automobile. The buggy was smashed and the automobile badly damaged.

Lynch is suffering from a broken leg and possibly internal injuries. He had both ankles broken and is badly bruised. Mrs. Nelms sustained a severe scalp wound and is badly bruised. Laport was injured by the flying glass and may die.

The two men in the buggy were slightly injured and the boy was unhurt.

Stabbed in the Back.

Youngstown, Ohio, Sept. 4.—John Rhodes, a popular youth, was stabbed in the back Monday night. With a companion he was passing several men who were quarreling in the street when he was attacked. He will die. Several suspects were arrested.

A Fatal Misstep.

Steubenville, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Vincent Andrea, aged 28, a track walker, stepped out of the road of a Panhandle freight and was struck and killed by a passenger train.

RIOTING IN 'FRISCO

Labor Day Marred by Trouble In the California City.

TROLLEY MEN ARE ATTACKED

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—A clash between non-union street car employees and a crowd returning from witnessing the Labor day procession Monday, resulted in a riot in which at least a half dozen people were injured, one probably fatally.

The parade of the labor unions had just been dismissed, and a large crowd was waiting to go to Shell Mound, where exercises have been part of the day's program for some years.

When, under the direction of an inspector a car was started, running into the mass of people and injuring several, it infuriated the crowd, which attacked the inspector, whereupon Conductor James Walking and Motorman F. J. Durson drew their revolvers and fired.

This further angered the crowd, and within a few minutes a fight on all the carmen who had been tied up by the parade crowds, was precipitated. It was some time before both the police and fire departments could restore order.

Riot at Louisville, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 4.—A woman was responsible for a riot here Monday following Labor day parade. She refused to ride on a car operated by nonunion men, and called on several men who had participated in the parade to remove the motorman and conductor from the car. Her words inflamed the crowd immediately, as the street car men have already voted to go on strike and will probably walk out Thursday night, and in a thrice four cars were attacked and practically demolished, four of the nonunionists being seriously injured.

RICHARD MANSFIELD IN GRAVE.

Funeral Services Over the Actor Were Very Simple.

New London, Conn., Sept. 4.—All that was mortal of Richard Mansfield was carried to the grave in the Gardner cemetery, within a few rods of his summer home Monday. The ceremony was simple but impressive, and was attended by many of the friends and relatives of the late actor. The services at the house were simple. After this ceremony, those present formed in a procession and proceeded to the plot selected for the burial almost directly across the street, where brief services were also held.

Train is Derailed.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 4.—The Chesapeake and Ohio local passenger train No. 6 was derailed near Kanawha Falls, 31 miles from Charleston, and as a result seven are dead and 17 injured. One coach and the combination express and baggage car left the tracks and overturned, rolling aowards the Kanawha river. Among the dead are Allen Loving, a law student at West Virginia university, serving as express agent during the summer; G. S. Campbell, a telegraph operator, and a fireman, name unknown. Spread of the rails is supposed to have caused the accident.

Will Build Flour Mill.

Huntsville, Alafl, Sept. 4.—F. M. Hopkins & Co., Shelbyville, Tenn., capitalists, have secured a site in this city and will establish a large flouring mill here. The industry will represent an investment of about $25,000, and its daily output will be 200 barrels of flour. This is the first industry to be located through the efforts of the Huntsville Business Men's League.

EXPOLSION IN POWDER MILL.

One Man Killed and Another Fatally Injured.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 4.—A terrific explosion ocurred Tuesday in the powder mill of the Austin Powder company, located a few miles south of the city, resulting in the death of one employe and the fatal injury of another.

Jacob Bazut was almost instantly killed, while Frank Moroski was frightfully injured and will die from his wounds. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Had the explosion ocurred a few hours later, many other workmen would doubtless have been killed and injured.

Henry Garvin's Troubles.

Henry Garvin's troubles are his own, but he has plenty of them at this time.

Garvin was arrested near Alachua for carrying concealed weapons, and was convicted in Justice Caswell's court and fined $100 and cost or six months on the county "gang." Not having the wherewith to pay his fine, he was brought to this city and placed in jail.

Mr. Brockton was also convicted in Justice Caswell's court of lascivious-ness, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and cost or spend six months. He will pay for her also in serving out the time.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

Examination for Both White and Colored Applicants Will be Held.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun.

The examination of applicants for the position of teacher in the schools of Alachua county will begin today, a number of applicants being here to enter. The examinations will be held under the personal supervision and direction of County Superintendent Dr. J. L. Kelley, assisted by Hon. R. B. Weeks of Hawthorn, chairman of the Board of Public Instruction.

The examination of white teachers will be held in the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School, while that of the colored will take place in the Union Academy.

Dr. Kelley feels very much encouraged over the success attained at the session of the county normal training school, which closed here Monday, and which was conducted by Prof. Cassels of the Alachua High School.

The examination will continue for the standard length of time—four days—and many new applications for positions have been filled, the applicants taking the examination.

Cures Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Honor to Miss Sadler.

Mrs. Julia Sadler and daughter, Miss Belle, left Monday for Faucett, Ga., where Miss Sadler has been appointed a member of the faculty of Nacoochee Institute, a Presbyterian college.

Miss Sadler has been assigned to English literature, history and elocution, which was quite an honor to her, being one of the youngest teachers in the country. Her friends here all extend congratulations.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

MRS. FUTCH AT DAYTONA.

Entertained Number of Friends at Six-O'clock Dinner Few Days Ago.

One of the most enjoyable events at Daytona Beach this season was the six-o'clock dinner given by Mrs. J. E. Futch, who occupied elegant quarters on Seabreeze avenue, Daytona Beach, for several weeks.

The following account of the function, taken from The Daytona Gazette-News, current number, will prove of interest to Mrs. Futch's friends in this city and section:

"An elegant six-o'clock course dinner given last Monday evening by Mrs. J. E. Futch on Seabreeze avenue, was an occasion of much enjoyment to those participating. After dinner the evening was pleasantly passed in conversation and vocal music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doyle, Jacksonville; Howard Atkinson, Ocala; Miss Marion Futch, M. B. Aultman, Daytona; Miss Ida Burkhim, Gainesville; Miss Marie Turner, Alachua; Eli Futch, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Futch, Jacksonville, and little Miss Eva Futch.

"Mrs. Futch and her talented family leave for their home in Gainesville today after two months spent in the Johnson cottage. Mrs. Futch came here to recover health, and returns home well pleased with the decided benefit she has received from the out-of-door life on the beach."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonals.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by all druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Goes Back to Teaching.

T. P. Maynard of Alachua is in the city.

Mr. Maynard rightfully belongs to be called "Professor," for he was a teacher of prominence in this section for many years; but several years ago he gave up his profession in order to farm, as his health was none too good. He has regained this health now, however, and has decided to return to what he terms his duty—educating the children—and has accepted a position as principal of the White Springs High School, one of the best schools in Hamilton county.

Prof. Maynard was once principal of the High Springs High School, and was very popular and successful there. There is no doubt but that he will achieve the same success in White Springs.

General Robert E. Lee

Was the greatest general the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest Liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: "This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent Liniment for Rheumatic pains. I am never without it." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A Busy Rule Day.

Monday was rule day in the county judge's court, and His Honor Judge Mason reports it one of the busiest days he has had for a long time. There were a large number of matters to come up for consideration, which kept the genial Judge constantly busy during the day

BARN AT ANTIOCH WAS BURNED SUNDAY

Struck By Lightning While Owner and Family Were Away.

THE LOSS WAS A TOTAL ONE

Frank Dampier Loses Heavily as Result of Pranks from Lightning, Which Struck His Barn and Consumed the Building and Contents.

While attending divine worship at the little church at Antioch with his family Sunday afternoon, Frank Dampier, a well-known farmer of that section, met with a misfortune which cost him his barn and all feed, and which he will be unable to overcome until he can harvest another crop.

Report has it that a terrific thunder and wind storm, accompanied by lightning, visited the Antioch section Sunday afternoon, during which the barn of Mr Dampier was struck by lightning, igniting and burning the barn and all contents, consisting of a quantity of hay and grain.

As has already been stated, Mr. Dampier and his family were at church, and there was nobody on the place at the time. When they returned the family found the place reduced to ashes.

Mr. Dampier is an industrious, hard-working farmer, and has the sympathy of all who know him.

Reported That a Big Picnic Will Be Given by People of Alachua.

It is stated that the good people of Alachua, who are bent upon enjoying life to the fullest extent, have decided to give a grand picnic and dinner at Burnett's Lake, only a mile and a half distant from that town, on Friday.

The people of Alachua are not only an energetic set, but they believe in a good time. The picnic will no doubt be attended by a large crowd, and it goes without saying that the day will be passed in a most enjoyable manner.

Cooper of Umatilla performed the ceremony, during which the bride's sister, Miss Lillian Doss, presided at the piano and played "Hearts and Flowers." Immediately after receiving congratulations the happy couple were driven to Astor, where they took the boat for this city, their future home.

ITCHING PIMPLES TORMENT 5 BOYS

Arms and Hands Affected—Could Not Sleep Because of Itching—Suffered for Two Months Until Two Cakes of Cuticura Soap and

ONE BOX OF CUTICURA CURED THEM 'ALL

"I have five boys, from five to eleven years of age, who were affected some time last winter by some kind of skin disease. The worst parts of the body were around the arms and hands, where small pimples formed and itched. They suffered for two months so that they could not sleep at night. I noticed an advertisement about the Cuticura Remedies and we made a trial of one or two cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment which gave great satisfaction. I washed their bodies with Cuticura Soap and then applied Cuticura Ointment every other day. Since then they have all been healthy. A. E. Carlson, Norcross, Travers Co., Minn., Nov. 26 and Dec. 23, 1906."

WORST ECZEMA

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black splotches all over my face and a few on my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of suffering. I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of ——. After a thorough examination of the dreaded complaint they announced it to be skin eczema in its worst form. They treated me for a year, but their treatment did me no good. Finally I became despondent and decided to discontinue their services. My husband purchased a complete set of Cuticura Remedies, which entirely stopped the breaking out. I continued the use of the Cuticura Remedies for six months, and after that every splotch was entirely gone and the affected parts left as clear as ever. I have not felt a symptom of the eczema for three years. Mrs. Lizzie E. Sledge, 540 Jones Ave., Selma, Ala., Oct. 28, '05."

MR. MELTON ENTERTAINS.

The Ocala Banner correspondent who is writing from Seabreeze of the Ocala people who are sojourning at that popular resort and Daytona Beach, has the following to say of a citizen of Micanopy, who has been spending the past few days there:

"Mr. C. E. Melton, a lumber operator and banker of Micanopy, who has spent the month of August at Daytona Beach, and who has his fine 30-horse power Cadillac machine at the beach with him, took us to the ball game, and after the game was over gave us a splendid spin over the beautiful hard roads of Daytona, through its principal avenues, which are noted for their picturesqueness and beauty, thence along the beach as far down as Port Orange, and it was the most delightful ride we have ever enjoyed. We made the trip to Port Orange, which is seven miles, in nine minutes. Mr. Melton is a splendid citizen and is doing a great deal for the upbuilding of our neighboring town. Accompanied by his family Mr. Melton left this morning for Hot Springs, North Carolina, where they will enjoy the month of September."

THE LATERAL SEWERS.

Contractor Beeman Has Them Well Under Way—Will Finish On Time.

Contractor Beeman, who was awarded the contract for laying the lateral sewers in the various streets of the city, has got down to work in good shape, and reports that more than half of the work on East Main street, which is one of the principal thoroughfares, has been completed.

This contract was given out under supervision of the Board of Public Works several days ago. There were only two bids, and that of Contractor Beeman being considered the best, was accepted, with the provision that the work must be completed within six months of the time the contract was signed.

Contractor Beeman began within ten days after the bid had been awarded, and has been working steadily ever since. He has a good force of men who understand their business, and feels confident that he will finish the work easily within the time prescribed by the contract.

Mr. Beeman was the successful bidder for the extensive system of street sewerage. He did an excellent job on this work, and the same will no doubt be true of the contract he now has in hand.

OLD LAND-MARK IS GONE.

Presbyterian Manse at Hawthorn Destroyed by Fire Sunday.

The old Presbyterian manse at Hawthorn, which has been standing for many years, was burned Sunday night, and this removes from that section one of the old land-marks.

The building, which had been given up as a parsonage several years ago, was occupied as a residence by E. T. Hawthorn and family. The fire was discovered too late to extinguish the flames with the inadequate equipment for fighting fire provided in the town, with the result that the entire building and a part of the contents were consumed.

She Found Relief.

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas: "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish." LETTER TO J. H. ALDERMAN, Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sir: They're glad they found out Devoe.

Corpus Christi, Texas, is right on the Gulf and one of the hardest climates for paint; hot sun, salt air, and strong winds.

The Sidbury Building, painted Devoe in 1899, is a shining example of perfect paint snow-white after 7 years, as if painted last week.

We should like every property-owner from Maine to Mexico to see that white, white, white.

Experience teaches who wants to learn as well as who waits to be kicked. Yours truly,

HON. J. N. C. STOCKTON.

Capt. John B. Johnston, editor of The Pasco County Democrat has the following to say concerning the prospective candidacy of the above gentleman for Governor:

"From recent utterances by Hon. J. N. C. Stockton it is probable that he may enter the gubernatorial race. While it is true that we and Mr. Stockton have trained in different political camps and have been arrayed against each other in the great political battles of the State for the past twenty years, yet our personal relations have always been of the kindliest and most friendly nature. We do not hesitate to assert, with all possible emphasis, that in our humble judgment there is no man in the State better equipped for the office of Governor, nor one who would give to the people of Florida a cleaner or more beneficial administration of the State's affairs. He possesses in a degree that is worthy of emulation by us all 'that humanity that meets in every man a brother,' that sympathy which enters with warmth into the feelings of others, that friendship which flows with generous emotions and binds us to those we love with indissoluble ties, that charity that puts on every action and appearance the most favorable interpretation, that philanthropy that feels with quickness the distress of others, and that spirit of justice that accords to all their due. Mr. Stockton has set a noble example to the young men of this State, of diligence in business, of truth and devotion to principle and justice, honesty and uprightness in all his conduct toward his fellow man, and in public life, which is the basis of our social connections. He has filled many important positions, and he met and performed the duties of each in a manly, straightforward, honest way. Should he be elected Governor we know that he will enter upon the duties of the office with as pure and patriotic emotions as ever animated the human breast. During his political career many questions of grave importance have enlisted public attention. Titanic struggles have occurred between warring factions in this State, who differed as to men and policies. His attitude with respect thereto was the attitude of his party, and he was ever at the fore in the assertion and maintenance of that party's principles. All honor to him for that. All honor we say always to the man of strong and honest convictions, who has the courage to stand by them. In the assertion and maintenance of his convictions Mr. Stockton has ever been a leader. He possesses the elements of leadership. He is bold, aggressive, logical, convincing. He is as brave in defeat as in victory. We do not say that he is always right. We do not say he has no faults. Far from it. He is a strong man, and gentle, and his faults, such as they are, are overborne immensely by his virtues. We do say that as Governor of the State he will adequately meet every demand upon him, conscientiously perform his public duties, and give us an administration of, for and by the people. What more do we want?"

THIRTEEN WET COUNTIES.

The Apalachicola Times says: "The 'wet' counties of Florida are Escambia, Franklin, Duval, Nassau, Marion, Hillsboro, Monroe, Dade, Putnam, St. Johns, Clay, Lee, Orange—13 counties out of a total of 46. Of the 13 wet counties the prohibitionists are active in Escambia, Franklin, Duval and Putnam, and predictions have been made by men well posted in State politics that prohibition will be made an issue in the future politics of the State. Doubtless Mr. Kehoe thus diagnosed the situation when some months since he sprang into the prohibition fight in Santa Rosa county and made speeches for the prohibitionists, assisting materially in the election result in that county. There remains but two wet counties in the third Congressional district—Escambia and Franklin—and it is probable that the prohibitionists, encouraged by results obtained elsewhere, will make a strong effort to carry these counties dry, and will also demand of the Congressional candidates that they align themselves either for or against prohibition and enter earnestly in the fight. There will be no chance for the candidates to evade the issue. We know where Mr. Kehoe stands, and we wish to know where Mr. Lamar stands."

Are we to understand that no guilty trust or wealthy malefactor is to be allowed to escape?

A DEMOCRAT WHO DOES THINGS

Among those who are being discussed as likely to be considered for the Democratic nomination for President is Robert B. Glenn, Governor of North Carolina, who has become prominently before the country within the past month or two by reason of his controversy with Judge Pritchard over the enforcement of the North Carolina railroad rate laws. He was born on a farm in Rockingham county, N. C., in August 1854, and is a member of a distinguished family, and received a classical education. Having spent three years at Davidson College, and two years at the University of Virginia, he began the study of law in 1875, under Judge Richmond Pearson. In 1877 he was admitted to the bar, and soon afterward married, and settled at Danbury, in Stokes county, where he practiced his profession for seven years. He then moved to Winston, and formed a partnership with Clement Manly. In 1881 he was sent to the State Legislature. In 1885 he was elected solicitor of the ninth judicial district of North Carolina and in 1893 he was appointed by President Cleveland to the office of district attorney for the Western district of North Carolina. In 1904 he was elected Governor of the State. He was a Cleveland elector in 1884, 1888 and 1892. He is regarded as a great lawyer, and is devoted to his profession. He has never been a candidate for Congress.

As Governor Glenn succeeded in compelling the Southern Railway to obey the laws of North Carolina, in spite of the interference of the former attorney of that corporation, who is now a Federal circuit judge, he has won the plaudits of all men who favor a stricter regulation of railroads, and that alone would make him an available Democratic candidate for any position that his countrymen may select him for.

GOOD LOGIC.

The Democratic leader of the House of Representatives, Hon. John Sharp Williams, urges Democrats everywhere to "emphasize the thing that they are agreed upon, and forget the things they do not agree upon." This is sound logic. If two disputants cannot agree upon the premises, they cannot reason. If they do agree upon the premises, they are also most likely to agree upon the conclusion. Now we can all agree upon the axioms and definitions of free society which we call the principles of Jefferson, if we are really Democrats. But we shall look in vain for the principle of Federal ownership of interstate highways among the principles of Jefferson. So also we should find in those principles no warrant for governing a people without their consent, or taxing one class for the benefit of another class, or policing weaker nations, or entangling alliance with Kings, or expending Federal authority by shifty interpretations of the constitution. In fact we should find in Jefferson nothing resembling the "policies" of Mr. Roosevelt, nothing like the socialistic hallucinations that some Democrats are preaching. Such things, therefore, we ought to forget. Those who will not agree upon the axioms and definitions of free society will find a more congenial lodgment in the Socialistic party, or in its proginitor, the Republican party. They cannot reason with Democrats, and, therefore, can never reach the same or similar conclusions as a basis of unity.

Clerk of the Circuit Court S. H. Wienges has received the printed copies of the Acts of the Legislature of 1907, but they are absolutely worthless. Pages 321 to 336 inclusive are omitted, and pages 289 to 304 inclusive are repeated in different parts of the book, while in another part of the book, the number of pages skips from 304 to 337. Mr. Wienges has written to Secretary of State Crawford that the copies are subject to his order. If the copies sent out to the other counties are in similar condition the whole edition will have to be returned to the State printer, taken apart, properly put together and rebound, which will occasion another delay before the laws can be placed in the hands of the officials of the various counties.

Was it too much strenuosity on the part of the President that compelled Secretary Root to retire to the "Great Muldoon's" to recuperate?

NO "DEGENERATE PRODUCT."

The Short Talks editor of The Times-Union says: "The Times-Union is not a Roosevelt, and never butts into the controversies of neighbors when it can keep out, but it must protest when a brother editor speaks of our razorback as a 'degenerate product.' We will not have it. Instead of a degenerate, the razorback is a developed product peculiar to our State. It may be different from all others of the family, but it is Floridian, it is wonderfully adapted to the conditions surrounding it, and it is our very own. Centuries ago DeSoto brought the royal ancestors of the hog from Spain where they had furnished sport and food to Goth and Moor, and was known as the companion of prince and knight. Here it scorned captivity, took to the woods during the terrible battles of the Long March, the Great Swamp and the Struggle in the Lake. Against its army the arrows of the Indian availed little—before its tusks the naked Indian fled and the Spanish boar survived where the Spanish knights perished. Then began the long struggle with nature, the original stock being varied by contributions of blood from English and American sources. The product is the razorback—the only animal of the porcine family that has developed the speed of the horse, the activity of the cat and the courage of the Conquistador in harmonious proportions. If Haeckel knew him, what a fame would be his! Knowing him as we do, let us build him a monument more enduring than brass and hail him as one of the first among cultivated and cultured Floridians."

A WORLD OF WEALTHY WOMEN.

The new club-house of the Colony Club of New York, an imposing Colonial structure, costing all told, a half-million dollars, and architecturally like unto a delightful old New England tavern, is altogether unprecedented in the club-woman's world on this side of the Atlantic.

A temptingly equipped cuisine of offered to satisfy the cosmopolitan tastes of a membership of nearly one thousand women, who willingly part with the unmatched fees of one hundred and fifty dollars for initiation and one hundred dollars annual dues—to say nothing of gilt-edged prices for every service after one officially arrives, so to speak. The scene at the door is perpetually animated. From early morn until midnight, crested antomobiles turn in at the curb, and the courtly attendant in Colonial livery of blue and buff ushers a constant stream of arrivals into this delightful retreat, says The September Delineator. Sitting in the small reception-room at the side, one gets a series of kaleidoscopic impressions of the life of this original club. Probably Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, saunters in for a plunge into the white marble pool, or Mrs. John Jacob Astor for an athletic turn or two in the gymnasium, or Mrs. Clarence Mackay for a short rest in the reading room, or Miss Jeanette Gilder accompanies Miss Maude Adams for a comforting cup of tea after their professional duties.

The Methodist Church of Indiana, which holds prohibition as one of its modern tenets, is somewhat excited over the question whether Fairbanks, with his cocktail record, shall represent the church at the quadrennial conference. Fairbanks is finding it rather difficult to hold the prohibitionists and the liquor people both in line for his Presidential boom.

It now turns out that the carved medicine chest which was presented to the President by an army officer was manufactured at the army cabinet shop in the Philippines at a cost of $153 to the Government and the investigation of Col. Garlington shows a vast amount of similar graft in the quartermaster's department.

Congressman Henry T. Rainey of Illinois is believed by that reliable Democratic paper, The Alton Sentinel-Democrat, to be a candidate for President that all factions of the party would support, and advises those engaged in the discussing of the most available candidate to take him into serious consideration.

From his Oklahoma speech it would look as though Secretary Taft and Senator Foraker were getting perilously near together on the Brownsville episode.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weston are at home again, after a bridal trip to points on the East Coast, principally Daytona Beach. Mr. Weston, it will be remembered, was married to Miss Mamie Hill of this city in Palatka, thus making quite a surprise to their friends here.

Miss Alice Strickland of Waldo is spending the week in the city. Miss Strickland came for the purpose of taking the teachers' examination, but her friends are glad to see her at any rate. She is a fine teacher, and was on the faculty of the Waldo Senior High School last year.

D. W. L. Barton of Rocky Point was in the city yesterday. Mr. Barton was en route to Enterprise, Ala., where he had been called on account of the serious illness of his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Massey, formerly Miss Julia Barton, who is well known and popular here. It is hoped he will find her condition greatly improved.

J. Harry Tench, agent of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city, expects to make his departure today for the Jamestown Exposition, Richmond, Washington and other points. He is on his annual vacation, and expects to be gone about a month. His numerous friends here wish him a pleasant and beneficial outing.

Maurice Arnow, formerly of this city but now holding a responsible position as railway postal clerk between Jacksonville and Tampa, was in the city for a short time yesterday. Mr. Arnow was en route to Micanopy, where his wife is now visiting. He expects to remain there for the next few days, as he is on his annual vacation.

"The town of Faleide, Norway, imposes no taxes on its lucky inhabitants," says The London (Eng.) Bystander. "During the last thirty years the authorities at Faleide have sold over $5,000,000 worth of trees; and, by judicious replanting, have provided for a similar income every thirty years. In consequence of this source of commercial wealth there are no taxes in Faleide, and local railways and telephones are free, as well as education and drinks—upon the King's birthday!"

Tom Lawson, the Boston speculator, advertises to buy stocks. Henry Clews, the Wall Street banker, advises great caution. As long as the frenzied financiers cannot agree it may be wise to let them fight it out without your assistance.

PISTOL TOTER WAS NABBED BY MARSHAL

Arrested for Drunkenness, But Big Pistol Was Found in Bosom.

THE GUN WAS AN UGLY OLD "38"

Man Was Taken to Jail, and Will Have to Answer to Both City and County for Carrying Concealed Weapons—Heavy Sentence for Him.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun.

Marshal Arnow pulled "big game" at the Atlantic Coast Line railroad passenger station Monday when the north bound train, bound from St. Petersburg to Jacksonville, arrived here.

A white man left the train in an intoxicated condition. He entered the office of the Alachua Co. Abstract Co. and began to make himself generally obnoxious, when he was placed under arrest by the ever-watchful marshal.

The fact of being taken up for disorderly conduct was not so bad, but the officer found concealed in the shirt bosom of the man a 38-calibre Smith & Wesson revolver, loaded and ready for business."

The train crew stated to the marshal that the man got on the train at Ocala in an intoxicated condition, and had given them trouble and annoyance all the way to Gainesville.

This offender of the law will have to pay into the city about $25 and costs, when the county will finish him up for $100 and costs or three months in the "gang." That is the standard sentence for pistol-toters in this section.

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT.

In the mayor's court K. W. Fellon, the white man who was arrested at the passenger station of the Atlantic Coast Line Monday as he left the train and began to annoy people in the office of the Alachua County Abstract Company, was fined $5 and costs upon a charge of disorderly conduct.

Fellon only had $12.50 in his pocket. Hence the charge of carrying concealed weapons was not brought against him. He was arrested, however, after paying his fine in the city, on a warrant sworn out in the name of the county, was taken before Justice Colman, and fined $100 and costs or three months in the county "gang." Not having the funds to pay his fine, he will necessarily have to spend his time in learning how to "box" timber at mine phosphate.

Fellon is a white man. It will be remembered that he got on the train at Ocala Monday, according to the statement of the train crew, and was still under the influence of liquor when arrested here by Marshal Arnow, who found a pistol in his bosom.

DR. C. B. STROUSE CLOSES CHAUTAUQUA

In Hendersonville, N. C., After Successful Session.

PRESENTED WITH LOVING CUP

"Bob" Taylor, John Temple Graves, Dr. Broughton and Dr. Spurgeon Spoke in High Terms of Dr. Strouse. Resolutions Adopted.

The Hendersonville correspondent of The Asheville (N. C.) Citizen, under date of September 2, refers to the closing exercises of the Chautauqua conducted in the former city by Dr. Clarence B. Strouse as follows:

"The Chautauqua conducted by Dr. C. B. Strouse closed in this city tonight. The closing was featured by the presentation of a silver cup to Dr. Strouse, the presentation being made by Colonel Pickens. The Chautauqua has been a most successful one and various speakers, including "Bob" Taylor, John Temple Graves, Spurgeon and Broughton have spoken in high terms of Dr. Strouse.

"The following resolutions were read from the platform and adopted with great enthusiasm and applause:

"'Be it resolved by the people of Hendersonville, in Chautauqua meeting assembled: That whereas, Dr. Clarence B. Strouse, pursuant to his contract and announcement, has given to the people of Hendersonville a Chautauqua program unsurpassed in excellence and variety and highly pleasing and satisfactory to the people and visitors of the town, and which they have well patronized, and whereas: We, the people and visitors who have attended the 1907 session of the Chautauqua, have the utmost confidence in the high Christian character and integrity of Dr. Strouse and desire to express the same, therefore, we do most cordially extend to Dr. Strouse our thanks and appreciation for the great entertainment we have enjoyed and we eagerly look forward to the coming session of the Chautauqua to be held by him in Hendersonville, where he may always expect a hearty welcome.'"

The Gainesville friends of Dr. Strouse are glad to learn that the people of Hendersonville have stood by him so solidly in his undertaking. We have information from a disinterested party to the effect that the attendance upon Dr. Strouse's Chautauqua outnumbered that of the opposition Chautauqua ten to one, and that the former was the most successful ever conducted in Hendersonville, which is evidence that the people of the North Carolina city love and esteem Dr. Strouse as do the people of Gainesville.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

Work is Progressing Nicely, and Good Accomplishments Expected.

The examination of applicants for teachers for Alachua county schools, which began Tuesday morning, is progressing nicely, and those in charge expect something very gratifying in reports. The applicants show a high-class of integrity, and Superintendent J. L. Kelley already feels good over the prospects.

The white applicants are taking the examination in the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School, while those applicants for the colored schools are being accommodated in Union Academy.

Prof. W. H. Cassels, principal of the Alachua school, has charge of the whites, while Hon. R. B. Weeks, chairman of the School Board, is looking after the colored applicants.

MARRIAGE AT WALDO.

Two Popular Young People Were United There on Tuesday Evening.

There was a happy marriage at Waldo Tuesday evening, the contracting parties being Clyde Hartman of West Virginia and Miss Nellie, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kite.

The affair was a quiet one, only the immediate family of the bride and a few intimate friends being present.

The groom is not well known here, but is said to be a young man of exceptional qualities. The bride was born and reared in the vicinity of Waldo, and is a young lady remarked for her refinement and good disposition.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 3.—"Our friends, the enemy," have contributed much largely to the gayety of nations during the last week by a public exposition of their differences, differences which, if properly handled, should make for Democratic success at the polls in November, 1908. Speaker Cannon, who insists that he is "seventy-one years young," has announced his candidacy for the Presidency, and at the same time has lent dubious to the President by emphasizing the great prosperity and declaring that it would be a "crime" for Congress to do anything which would [illegible] the business of the country; while Mr. Cannon uses it, although [illegible] the tariff and the pro[illegible] Politicians in [illegible] the Speaker's [illegible], to be a warning to [illegible] that he will have none [illegible] extension of the rail[illegible] rates, tariff revision or [illegible] which would prove [illegible] to the interests which sup[illegible] of the party which Mr. [illegible] represents.

Secretary Taft is still making progress of [illegible] on his way West, and [illegible] most of the President's [illegible], much to the chagrin of the [illegible] faction of the Republican party, which had hoped that Taft, [illegible] most likely to get the [illegible] would get behind the [illegible] of Republicanism and re[illegible] from the "radicalism" which [illegible] the Roosevelt era. Out [illegible], however, is making frequent [illegible] condemning the President [illegible] having him and others to pass [illegible] rate law, which is so ob[illegible] to Mr. Bonaparte's railway affairs, and commending the President [illegible] without honor the [illegible] of the 25th Infantry, [illegible] which is of course an appeal to Ohio's 200,000 negro voters.

The Navy Department has decided to keep "Old Ironsides," in other words, "the good ship Constitution," here in Annapolis where, it is believed, it will be an object lesson in patriotism to the "middies" who are preparing to serve their country as officers in the navy. The old ship was not going to ruin in the Boston navy yard when Senator Lodge secured the passage of a bill appropriating funds for the recaulking of her seams and the restoration of her upper works. Of course, the Senator expected that the ship would remain in the Boston navy yard, and his work in Congress was loudly applauded in his home city, but the docks of the navy yard are crowded and the department has decided that the ship will serve a better purpose at the cradle of the navy, where there is ample room in the comparatively peaceful waters of the Chesapeake, and as soon as the work of rejuvenation is completed the old vessel will be towed South.

The President has once more essayed the role of peacemaker, this time attempting to bring order out of the chaos which for some time has existed in the Central American countries. In conjunction with President Diaz of Mexico, President Roosevelt has addressed a telegraphic note to the President of Honduras, Nicaragua, Salvador, Costa Rica and Guatamala, begging them to meet in a peace conference and adopt a joint treaty binding all five to submit to arbitration any differnce which cannot be settled by diplomatic negotiations. The two executives promise the good offices of their respective countries to assist in this praiseworthy move, and will doubtless act as arbitrators, if so desired. The President and Secretary Root have long contemplated some such move as that now taken, but they waited until they had diplomatic assurance that the suggestions would not prove unwelcome to any of the powers addressed. Recent information, coming from unofficial sources, to the effect that Nicaragua was again preparing an expedition against Salvador, led to the dispatching of the note by telegraph.

The Hon. James Campbell of Ohio is authority for the statement that Alton B. Parker will again be a candidate for the Democratic nomination, next year. Mr. Campbell says he was sceptical regarding the accuracy of the report at first, but that he has satisfied himself that it is correct. Mr. Parker is reported to be receiving an income of $50,000 a year from the law firm with which he is associated, but doubtless $50,000 a year and occupancy of the White House, rent free for four years, would prove a good deal more attractive.

The friends of Hon. Charles A. Towne are trying to start a boom for that versatile citizen for the Presidency. They have not made much headway thus far, but they insist that he is the most likely candidate in the field, and Washington correspondents can have any amount of material telling why this is so, for the asking. It is to be hoped that there will be some available candidate before the convention besides Mr. Bryan, just to make it a genuinely lively Democratic convention. Of course, Mr. Hearst will be there with the support of the Independence League, and doubtless there will be enough doing to make it interesting, and not such a cut and dried affair as was the Republican convention of three years ago.

LaGRANGE MAN SUICIDES.

Porter Hannah Shoots Himself in the Mouth and Dies.

LaGrange, Ga., Sept. 3.—Sunday about 1:30 o'clock Porter Hannah, a young man employed at the LaGrange mills, committed suicide by placing a pistol in his mouth and firing, the ball going through his brain. This was his third attempt.

Hannah was sitting on his front porch steps, talking to his wife, when he asked her to go and get a piece of paper, that he might write a note. Before any one could reach him he had killed himself. His wife had become alarmed at his actions during the past few days, and had told members of her family that her husband was threatening to kill himself.

Hannah was a young man about 23 years of age. He left a wife and one child.

MOTHERHOOD

MRS. JAMES CHESTER

The first requisite of a good mother is good health, and the experience of materaity should not be approached without careful physical preparation, as a woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, more successfully than by any other medicine because it gives tone and strength to the entire feminine organism, curing displacements, ulceration and inflammation, and the result is less suffering and more children healthy at birth. For more than thirty years has been the standby of American mothers in preparing for childbirth.

Note what Mrs James Chester of 427 W. 35th St., New York says in this letter:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"I wish every expectant mother knew about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. A neighbor who had learned of its great value at this trying period of a woman's life urged me to try it and I did so, and I cannot say enough in regard to the good it did me. I recovered quickly and am in the best of health now."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a successful remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It has cured almost every form of Female Complaints, Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation, Ulcerations and Organic Diseases of Women and is invaluable in preparing for Childbirth and during the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free.

ARREDONDO NEWS NOTES.

Arredondo, Sept. 3.—Miss Nellie DaCosta of Gainesville is the guest of Mrs. George Smith and Miss Elsie V. Smith.

The cotton crop is in excellent condition; picking has begun and the outlook is favorable for a large crop of excellent quality.

The potato crop is promising.

The hay crop will be large; weather conditions were unfavorable a few days ago, but with clear weather the prospects are all that could be desired.

The velvet bean crop will be very large.

Business generally has, with few exceptions, been much better than during the summer months of former years, allowing for the decrease in values of some commodities.

Mrs. George Smith and her daughter, Miss Elsie Vermilye, have returned home after a very pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Russell of Jacksonville, in their seaside cottage at Pablo Beach. They are enthusiastic over the beauty of the Florida coast. When the environment of Florida is thoroughly appreciated and the opportunities for change of air and scenery are experienced, it is a cause of wonder that anyone should care to leave the State except for the briefest time.

Mrs. George Smith's pupils will give a piano recital Monday, September 9, at Archer.

Mr. Marion Ramsey, administrator of the estate of the late P. G. Ramsey, has sold a herd of fine cattle.

raft in Which the Party Was Seated Careened, Throwing All the Occupants into the Water—Two Cling Together and Drown Embraced.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 3.—Edward Winter, [illegible] of the Duval hotel, and Misses Cleanthe and Bertha Ballum, said to be from Atlanta, were drowned in the St. John's river Saturday while out on a moonlight launch ride.

The cabin of the little craft being somewhat stuffy, Winter and three of the young ladies in the party took seats on the canopy top of the launch while others in the party remained inside.

Scarcely had the young ladies taken seats than the launch careened and turned over, throwing all occupants into the water.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of ever, bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, and liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

Brother Dickey's Sayings.

Trouble doesn't stan' no chance wid de man what goes whistlin' on his way an' makes out dat de worl's all right.

Satan gits so much abuse dat I reckon he must say ter himself sometimes: "Well I'm a good deal wus than dem what talks 'bout me!"

Dar's des ez good fish in de river es ever has been kotched. De best thing after all is de faith er de fisherman ter keep on tryin'.

A Wise Brother.

"I am informed by a publisher," says a Texas author, "that it will take the value of six bales of cotton to place my poems on the market, and after due consideration I have decided to hold my cotton and let the poems go to Oblivion!"

A Welcome to Happiness.

I.

Good mawnin', Mister Happiness,
I hope you come ter stay;
I been a-waitin' fer you
Till I weary er de way!
I wants you ter stay here
Till I learns ter shout "Hooray!"

II.

Mawnin', Mister Happiness!
De longest life ain't long;
One day de worl' is rollin' right—
De next it's rollin' wrong!
I wants you ter larn me

What Brought Grief to Him.

Writing to his son, who was in trouble in Texas, the old man said:

"You must take courage, Bill!"

To which Bill replied:

"I took courage, and everything else in sight. That's why I'm in jail!"

Some Georgia Texts.

If the road to heaven was a railroad, the devil would apply for a job as conductor.

Many of the lost sheep of the fold get lost out of pure devilment.

Happiness don't always fly high. Sometimes you can find it in the dust of the roadside.

We read of an author who received $1,000 for a poem of fifty lines, and they say that he can write three poems a day!

Needed Sympathy.

Hearing that a Western man had been arrested, charged with having six wives, Brother Dickey said: "'Stidder 'restin' of him dey orter took him by de han' an' give him their sympathy!"

A Georgia Dante.

A Georgia singer who recently wrote a rhymed "Interview With the Devil," gives us the following reverse experience, in flowing numbers:

"I dreamed I went to glory,
Where all is bright and fair;
I looked for Parson Thomas,
But they didn't know him there!

"I asked for Deacon Williams
Who used to sing an' pray;
The angel smiled, and answered:
'He went the other way!'

"When Colonel Jinkins left us
They writ above his rest:
'Gone hence, to do some sleepin'
On Father Abraham's breast!'

"But there I did not find him:
I heard this word from all:
That Abraham got tired
And let the Colonel fall!

"But the Colonel's wife, Maria,
Was just inside the gate,
Tellin' of an angel
To put her crown on straight!

"So awful sad an' lonesome
Was every golden road,
I felt too strange to stay there
An' meet no friend I knowed!"

Positive Proof.

"John has wrote a sketch," said the old man, "and had it printed in the paper."

"Goin' to be a literary man, is he?"

"I reckon so. He's just drawed on me for fifty dollars!"

If "the devil rides on a fiddlestick," as the saying goes, he'll have many a long journey in Georgia as the quadrille and Virvinia reel season comes.

On Cremation.

"I don't much believe in dis cremation business," said Brother Dickey. "What is de sense in burnin' folks in dis worl' when dey runs sich a big risk of de same trouble in de next one?"

An author whose verses were harshly criticised, carved the editor with a razor. No use to say the poetry market is dull when it goes as well-equipped as that!

An old negro, applying to a former employer for a letter of recommendation, said: "Des put down dar dat I been livin' here all my life, and ain't been lynched yit!"

On a sweltering Sabbath, in a little church in the backwoods, the perspiring minister, instead of preaching a long sermon, called the attention of the congregation to the thermometer. "Just study those figures," he said. "It ain't half as hot here as you'll find it hereafter, if you don't mend your ways!"

The Man With Ice.

Let Fortune give the biggest slice
To the brave gentleman with ice!
A hero, far above all price—
The worthy gentleman with ice!
His welcome cart the air divides
And cools it with its dripping sides!
The world throngs round him in a trice,
And hurrahs for the man with ice!

PRICK OF KNIFE SAVED HIS LIFE

Man, Thought To Be Dead, Was Almost Dissected Alive.

Vienna, Sept. 3.—Johann Kovas, a railway station porter at Bihar, in Hungary, has had a narrow escape from being dissected alive.

A few days ago he fell down unconscious while at work, and was taken to the hospital. The doctors pronounced him dead, and a post-mortem was decided on, for which all preparations were made, the body being put on the dissecting table, where a lecture was delivered over it to the students before the body was operated upon.

At the first prick of the knife Kovas awoke with a start, and as soon as he realized the position, endeavored to assault the surgeon who held the dissecting knife. He had to be forcibly restrained by the other doctors..

Photographed 1,000,000 Times.

London, Sept. 3.—Who is the most photographed person? His followers claim this distinction for General Booth. Since the general started on his motor tour through England and Wales three weeks ago he has been photographed more than 4,000 times. According to a count made by an official accompanying him the daily average of snapshot portraits exceeds 200. "If all the photographs ever taken of General Booth were brought together, said an officer, 'there would be probably a million different pictures in it.'" So great became the number of photographers at Caranrvon, where the general was speaking at an open air meeting, that they had to be repulsed. "Get down; get away!" said the general to a photgrapher who had almost climbed into the motor car. Another photographer had climbed a ladder in the midst of the crowd.
